MEDIATION DYNAMICS 30-hour Family Mediation Training

INSTRUCTORS:

Mark W. Batchelder, J.D., Principal Instructor

Don R. Kelly, Ph.D., MSW, MCJ, L.C.S.W., Senior Instructor

Ben Adkins, Senior Instructor

UPDATE:

Our online MEDIATION DYNAMICS courses have been very successful! As an added benefit, participants learn essential procedures for conducting mediations online. So, until further notice, MEDIATION DYNAMICS will offer all mediation training courses exclusively online via Zoom.

Each online course is live and fully interactive during the entirety of the course and meets the standards of the Texas Mediation Trainers Roundtable (TMTR.org) and the Texas Mediator Credentialing Association (TXMCA.org). Each participant must appear live on camera for the entire duration of the course. Each participant must remain fully engaged in the course and not be driving or doing other activities which divert attention away from the course.

Each participant must agree that only MEDIATION DYNAMICS has the right to record the course and retains all rights to any recording of the course. Course materials will be available for download. MEDIATION DYNAMICS certificates will be awarded for these online trainings in the same manner as in-person trainings.

You are encouraged to call Mark W. Batchelder at 817-926-5555 with any questions about MEDIATION DYNAMICS.

COURSE DESCRIPTION:

The MEDIATION DYNAMICS 30-hour Family Mediation Training is an advanced Alternative Dispute Resolution course which provides and exceeds the “24 hours of training in the fields of family dynamics, child development, and family law, including a minimum of four hours of family violence dynamics training developed in consultation with a statewide family violence advocacy organization” as specified by Texas law (Texas Civil Practice and Remedies Code section 154.052). The course also includes a minimum of 6 hours of role-play simulation of family mediation. This course is designed to satisfy the standards of the Texas Mediation Trainers Roundtable (and also the Texas Mediator Credentialing Association) for family mediation training. The design standards of this course are also appropriate to comply with the mediation requirements of many other states. Following completion of the course, each course participant (who has also completed an appropriate 40-classroom-hour basic mediation training course) will be qualified as a court-appointed mediator able to perform mediation of disputes relating to the parent-child relationship (most frequently in divorce and post-divorce cases).

This course has been approved for Minimum Continuing Legal Education credit by the State Bar of Texas Committee on MCLE in the amount of 30 credit hours, of which 3 credit hours will apply to legal ethics/professional responsibility credit.

This course is designed for and targeted to attorneys. Also, non-attorney professionals from many different disciplines have used this level of training to become qualified mediators who conduct formal family mediation sessions. Participants have also used the dispute resolution techniques learned in this training to deal with many kinds of workplace interactions and dispute situations—especially those involving intense emotions.

COLLABORATIVE EMPHASIS:

This course emphasizes the skills needed to facilitate agreement among emotional people who are meeting together in the same room. Participants learn to perform this more difficult “collaborative” or “facilitative” style in addition to the more structured “caucus only” model (in which the disputants are in separate rooms). Qualified mediators should be familiar with and capable of performing different styles of mediation. This course is very well suited to collaborative lawyers, collaborative professionals, human resource managers, supervisors, customer service specialists, and other professionals who need to help resolve confrontations between emotional and potentially hostile people.

Mediation Dynamics has been approved as a continuing education provider for licensed social workers by the Texas State Board of Social Work Examiners.

COST:

$795.00 per participant, payable in advance by check, money order, or credit or debit card.

INTERACTIVE VIDEO COURSES ON ZOOM:

Each participant will receive instructions by email for connecting to our online video conference on Zoom. Please download and test the Zoom.us application for your computer or other device in advance. There is no need to pay for an account with Zoom. A modern laptop computer with a fast internet connection is preferred. A WiFi connection is fine, but a wired ethernet connection is better.

Each participant will receive instructions by email for accessing a shared Google Drive folder which will contain documents for collaborative use and all of the course materials on pdf files. Each participant may print out the materials on paper or may access them on a computer or other device so long as the participant remains live on camera in the video conference at all times.

COURSE POLICIES:

An applicant who misses the entire course for any reason will receive a full refund of any advance payment collected for that course from that applicant. A course participant who misses a portion of the course will not receive a refund, but will be permitted to make up the missed portion free of additional charge by attending that portion when the course is offered in the future. Other options to make up missed portions of the course may be provided by the instructors for an additional charge—usually $60 per classroom hour.

This course requires a minimum number of paying participants to register for the course. In case of a weather or health emergency which reasonably prevents MEDIATION DYNAMICS from conducting the training on any of the scheduled dates, the dates for the training will be rescheduled. MEDIATION DYNAMICS reserves the right to cancel a course for any reason. If a course is canceled by MEDIATION DYNAMICS, then any advance payment collected for that course will be fully refunded.

MEDIATION DYNAMICS may not use all of the instructors in each course and may employ other qualified mediator instructors in addition to or instead of any of the instructors listed above.

TEXT:

Family Mediation Training Manual and many other resources—provided by the instructors on a shared Google Drive folder.

METHODS OF EVALUATION:

Course participants will be asked to complete the questionnaire called COURSE CRITIQUE. MEDIATION DYNAMICS uses this information to improve the course. Instructors will also prepare a PARTICIPANT EVALUATION of the demonstrated ability of a course participant in the practice mediation sessions if required.

CERTIFICATE:

After the course is paid for and completed, MEDIATION DYNAMICS will provide a certificate for each participant describing the nature of the training and indicating that the participant (who has also completed an approved 40-classroom-hour basic mediation training course) is qualified as a court-appointed mediator able to perform mediation of disputes relating to the parent-child relationship. There is no “certified mediator” designation in Texas—no Texas state agency certifies or licenses mediators.

FAMILY COURSE BEFORE BASIC COURSE:

It is possible to take this family course before a basic mediation course, however, participants who complete the MEDIATION DYNAMICS 30-hour Family Mediation Training before completing a 40-hour basic mediation training course will receive a certificate for this course only after completion of an approved 40-hour basic mediation training course.

Sample Role-Play Scenario:

SEE #1: Return of Daughter from Grandparents (Jones vs. Barrett)

Donna and Jimmy Jones, Mother and Stepfather

Donna and Jimmy Jones are trying to get Donna's 5-year-old daughter, Kayla, back from Kayla's paternal grandparents (the Barretts). Donna gave birth to Kayla out of wedlock before she met and married her husband, Jimmy. About three years ago, due to some financial problems, Donna asked the Barretts to take care of Kayla until Donna could get back on her feet. The relationship between the Barretts and the Jones' has deteriorated to the point that Donna and Jimmy are not permitted to visit with Kayla and the Barretts have refused to return Kayla to Donna.

Donna and Jimmy, married about a year ago, went to Kayla's school and attempted to get her out of school. The school refused to release Kayla to Donna.

It would be difficult for the Jones' to raise the funds to hire an attorney to represent Donna in Court. When the Jones' consulted with an attorney, she suggested that they try mediation with the Barretts. Donna wants her daughter returned now!

Mary and Herman Barrett, Grandparents

Mary and Herman Barrett have cared for their 5-year-old granddaughter, Kayla, since she was 2 years old. Kayla's mother, Donna, and their son were never married. Donna asked them to take care of Kayla at a time when Donna was unable to do so.

The Barretts do not want to return their granddaughter to Donna. Kayla always returns from visits to her mother upset and Kayla no longer wants to visit her. Additionally, the Barretts know that they are financially better able to care for and provide for Kayla's needs. Donna didn't really seem to care about Kayla until she got married.

The Barretts are prepared to go to court to assert their rights for custody. They have already hired an attorney who agreed that the mediation might be a way to settle the issue before going to Court. Their attorney warned the Barretts that Courts often favor parents over grandparents and that they would have to convince the Court that it is in the best interests of the child to be with them rather than the child's mother.
